

Located on Kamala beach in Phuket Thailand, you can say 'I do' while standing over an infinity pool with views of the Andaman Sea.

This seven-bedroom luxury cliff-top villa is the ideal destination wedding location.

Publish in October 25, 2018

The details –

Accommodation: You will enjoy complete privacy and seclusion at the villa. There are four separate pavilions to house guests. The three floor Main Pavilion is the centre-piece of the property with uninterrupted ocean views. It features an exceptional spiral staircase, inspired by Bond classics. The living areas include an enormous recreation room with flat-screen TV, a wet-bar with beer on tap and pool table. There is also a private movie theatre. An impressive Reception Room defined by a stunning aquamarine Thai silk wall feature leads to a library; both have sun decks with uninterrupted ocean views. On the second floor, an additional living room and a formal dining room look out onto the deck and pool. The Main Pavilion also houses a gym.

The Arrival Pavilion houses a large bedroom suite with spacious living area and adjacent bunk bed room. The two floor Guest Pavilion has six self-contained guestrooms; two magnificent master bedrooms and two double bedrooms, with two additional twin-rooms, perfect for families. Each bedroom has a deluxe en-suite bathroom with open-air waterfall showers. For relaxing or romancing, the master bedrooms contain a deep plunge-bath for two, with ocean views through a floor-to ceiling window.

Professional service-staff are on hand to make guests' stay as comfortable as possible, including an English-speaking manager, and a full-time chef who will cook meals to order made. There is 24-hour security and free Wi-Fi throughout.

Weddings:

Aquila can accommodate up to 80 people for sit down dinner and 100 for stand up cocktail event. Facilities include; private spa with two massage stations, a bathtub and treatments. There is a commercial kitchen for caterers. Plus an ocean-view entertainment lounge with a bar and pool table, ideal for event after parties. Also there is no curfew for your wedding to end by so you can party into the night and early hours of the morning.

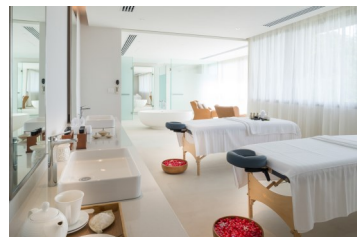

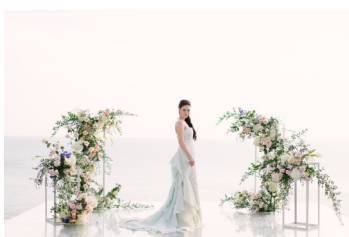

Things to do:

Guests can enjoy unique access to the glittering Andaman waters via a secluded cove and the more adventurous can explore the breathtaking underwater wonderland. Inquisitive children can discover and delight in the small waterfall close to the villa. There is a 30 meter infinity pool with the most glorious ocean views.

For more information visit :

www.aquilaphuket.com

www.aquilaphuket.com